

ASL-English Interpretation Program

Interpreting Theory & Practice for Deaf Interpreters

Facilitated by Christopher Tester

Explore the theories, process models and practice of consecutive interpreting, simultaneous interpreting and sight translation. Through observation and role-play activities you will gain experience with a variety of approaches and discourse styles. You'll also analyze your decision-making process to enhance your skills as a Deaf interpreter.*

* Workshop Presented in ASL – Sponsored by Mill Neck Interpreting Service

Fridays May 29 & June 5, 2015 5:30pm — 8:30pm
Saturdays May 30 & June 6, 2015 9:30am — 4:30pm
A16INT922A $215
LaGuardia Community College, Room: C-244

Christopher Tester, CDI

- ◆ Works in private practice in New York City as an American and British Sign Language interpreter, consultant, educator and trainer; works part time as an interpreter supervisor for Mill Neck Interpreter Service, NY
- ◆ Specializes in workshop and seminar facilitation on topics including disability rights and laws, deaf and hard-of-hearing awareness, and ASL and interpreting
- ◆ Volunteers consulting services to local coalitions that provide advocacy for the Deaf and Hard-of-Hearing communities in New York City's legal system
- ◆ Has eight years experience as a manager/trainer at Sorenson Communications and as a Special Projects Coordinator and Investigator at the New Jersey Division on Civil Rights
- ◆ Served as President of the New York City Metro chapter of the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf
- ◆ Currently pursuing a Masters Degree through European Masters in Sign Language Interpreting at Heriot Watt University, Scotland; received his Professional Certificate from the ASL-English Interpretation Program at LaGuardia Community College

To register contact Vanessa Watson at (718) 482-5313, email vwatson@lagcc.cuny.edu

Or

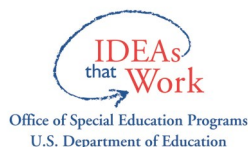

Register online at www.laguardia.edu/ace/register

CONTINUING EDUCATION
People, Changing

ASSOCIATE CONTINUING EDUCATION TRACKING

Office of Special Education Programs
U.S. Department of Education

